

Corporate Platinum Memberships - Terms & Conditions

- All corporate members must book an induction before they are able to use the Fitness Suite. This is free of charge.
- All corporate bookings are dependent on availability and this is outlined when anyone takes out a corporate membership.
- The offer is open to corporate member spouses subject to proof of address (same as the corporate member). At the time membership is taken out, it is preferable that a spouse is accompanied by a corporate member so that the necessary checks can take place swiftly.
- The corporate package is only available to corporate companies. The membership will not be sold on a 1-2-1 basis. All companies must provide a minimum of five members before they can qualify for the membership.
- Chesterton Sports Centre has the right to withdraw anybody from the corporate membership at any given time.
- If a corporate member wishes to cancel their monthly Direct Debit Membership after the first three months, one month's notice in writing is required.
- Customers enrolling on the corporate platinum membership scheme must produce proof of entitlement and employment within a company. Chesterton Sports Centre can accept photo badges or pay slips.
- If an employee terminates their employment with a Corporate company, Chesterton will honour the agreement with that member for the duration of their membership. Yearly and six month memberships are non-refundable. On re-newel of membership, proof of employment must be shown.
- All corporate members are reminded that due to limited spaces and availability in all activities, including Fitness Classes— pre booking is recommended.
